application is filed nor the compromise petition has been brought on record, rather the learned counsel submits that parties have compromised, as such, seeks permission to withdraw the anticipatory bail application with liberty to the petitioner to surrender and seek regular bail based on compromise.

4. Permission is accorded.

5. It is made clear that if the petitioner surrenders and seeks regular bail and there is a compromise petition on record, in that event the learned Trial Court shall consider and dispose of the case of the petitioner on the same day, but if the compromise petition is not on record, in that event the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to consider the case of the petitioner on its own merit.

6. Accordingly, the instant anticipatory bail application is dismissed as withdrawn with the liberty aforesaid.
