against the informant and his family members, and thereafter, the instant case has been lodged as an offshoot thereof. It is next submitted that the injuries sustained in the said scuffle, upon investigation and medical examination, have been found to be simple in nature. Learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that, without admitting his guilt and without prejudice to his defence, the petitioner is willing to pay a sum of Rs.2,000/- to the informant, who is a close family member of the petitioner, towards medical/financial assistance. It is lastly submitted that the petitioner has no criminal antecedents.

5. On the other hand, the learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail of the petitioner.

6. Considering that the injuries are simple in nature, and taking into account the undertaking given by the petitioner to pay Rs.2000/- towards medical/financial assistance at the time of furnishing bail bonds, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Saran at Chapra/Successor Court in connection with
