ORDER

Date : 13.10.2026

Heard Mr. C. W. Mantaw, learned counsel for the applicants, who submits that by filing this application, the applicants pray for suspension of the judgment and order dated 20.07.2026, passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Tezu, in Criminal Appeal No. 01(NMS)/2026, whereby the judgment and order dated 23.12.2025, passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Namsai, in GR Case No. 99/2019, was upheld. The applicants also pray for suspension of the impugned judgment and order dated 23.12.2025, passed by the learned Trial Court. The learned counsel submits that after the judgment and order was passed by the learned Trial Court, the applicants were allowed to remain on bail for a period of six (6) months from the date of the judgment.

2. Also heard Ms. T. Jini, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

3. This Court, vide order dated 13.10.2026, passed in the main criminal revision petition has considered the contentions of the petitioners and therefore, having regard to the same, this Court is of the considered view that pending finalization of the main criminal revision petition, the impugned judgment and order passed by the learned Trial Court, as well as the order passed by the learned Appellate Court, shall remain suspended.

4. Accordingly, both the sentences passed by the learned Courts below shall remain suspended pending finalization of the main criminal revision petition. The applicants shall be allowed to remain on bail, in terms of the bail bonds that have been executed before the learned Trial Court till disposal of the instant criminal revision petition.

5. The I.A. (Crl.) stands disposed of.
