Order on Board

16.10.2026

1. Despite the matter being called in the second round, no one appears on behalf of the petitioners, nor is there any representation on their behalf. In view of the repeated absence and lack of representation, it appears that the petitioners are not interested in prosecuting the present petition any further.

2. In the absence of any representation on behalf of the petitioners, this Court is left with no other option but to dismiss the writ petitions for want of prosecution.

3. Accordingly, the batch of writ petitions is dismissed for want of prosecution.
