Order on Board

1. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that, despite repeated efforts, he has not received any instructions from the petitioner for a considerable period of time. In the absence of necessary instructions from the petitioner, learned counsel submits that he is unable to effectively assist the Court or advance submissions on behalf of the petitioner in support of the writ petition.

2. In view of the submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner and considering that there are no instructions from the petitioner to proceed with the matter, this Court finds itself unable to adjudicate upon the grievance raised in the writ petition. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed for want of instructions.
