COMMON ORAL ORDER

1. These petitions, through jail, are filed by the petitioner seeking parole leave.

2. The jail remarks indicate that when the petitioner was released on parole by an order dated 10.10.2023, he had absconded for 523 days and thereafter was arrested by the Police and the jail conduct of the applicant is also not good, moreover, no justifiable reasons have been stated in the applications. Considering the same, no case is made out. These petitions are rejected, accordingly.

3. Registry to communicate this order to the concerned jail authority.
