P.C:-

1. The Petitions raise an objection that in the charge-sheet, the company is shown to be represented through the Petitioner, who is no more a Director of the Company.

Admittedly, the charge-sheet reflect so, but in our view it is open for the Petitioner to approach the competent court for issuance of summons to the accused Company through a

Director, who is in-charge of its affairs or to the Company by itself and thereupon it shall be open for the company to nominate as to who shall represent the Company.

2. With this liberty being conferred, we dispose of the Writ Petitions.
