Date: 15.10.2026

ORDER

This Criminal Petition is filed aggrieved by the order dated 11.09.2026, passed by the learned XIII Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, at Hyderabad (for short 'the trial Court'), in Crl.M.P.No.1051 of 2026 in C.C.No.266 of 2018, wherein the petition filed by the petitioner seeking to recall the Non-Bailable Warrant (NBW) issued against him was dismissed.

2. Heard Mr. G. Jithender Reddy, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.Jithender Rao Veeramalla, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is accused No.1 in C.C.No.266 of 2018 and is facing prosecution for the offences punishable under Section 498-A of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short, "IPC") and Sections 3 and 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 (for short 'the DP Act'). He further submits that the petitioner is a software engineer and residing at USA and due to his employment, he could not appear before the trial Court, pursuant to which the trial Court issued NBW against him on 09.05.2025. Thereafter, the petitioner filed petition vide Crl.M.P.No.1051 of 2026 under Section 70(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short, "Cr.P.C."), seeking the recall of the NBW issued against him. However, the learned trial Court, without properly considering the contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioner, dismissed the said application on 11.09.2026 on the ground that the matter is pertaining to 2018 and is coming up for examination of the petitioner from 2022. He further submits that the petitioner is coming to India on 18.10.2026 and the matter before the trial Court is posted to 22.10.2026 and on that day, the petitioner will appear before the trial Court and will face the examination. He further submits that the petitioner is willing to appear before the learned trial Court and will abide by the conditions which are going to be imposed by this Court. He also submits that the petitioner will represent the matter through his counsel and appear before the learned trial Court as and when required. Unless the NBW is recalled, the petitioner will be put to great hardship.

4. Per contra, learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that the matter is posted for examination of the petitioner and his presence is very much necessary, due to his non-cooperation, learned trial Court is not able to proceed with the matter since 2018. The trial Court rightly dismissed the application filed by the petitioner and there are no grounds to interfere with the docket order passed by the learned trial Court.

5. Having considered the rival submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties and upon perusal of the material available on record, it reveals that the petitioner is accused No.1 in C.C.No.266 of 2018 and is facing prosecution for the offences punishable under Section 498-A of the IPC and Sections 3 and 4 of the DP Act. The record further reveals that the matter before the trial Court is posted to 22.10.2026 and according to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is coming to India on 18.10.2026 and will appear before the trial Court and will represent the matter through his counsel on each and every date of adjournment.

6. Taking into consideration the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to recall the NBW issued against the petitioner on 09.05.2025. Hence, the impugned order dated 11.09.2026 passed by the learned trial Court is liable to be set aside and is accordingly set aside.

7. In view of the above, the NBW issued against the petitioner on 09.05.2025 is recalled, subject to the following conditions:

i) The petitioner shall execute a personal bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-Five Thousand only), with two sureties to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court.

ii) The petitioner shall file undertaking affidavit before the trial Court that he will appear before the trial Court whenever his presence is required, and also they shall represent the matter through his counsel each and every date of adjournment, in default, the learned trial Court is entitled to proceed with the matter, in accordance with law.

8. Accordingly, the Criminal Petition is disposed of.

Pending miscellaneous applications, if any, shall stand closed.
