SHALINI SINGH NAGPAL J. (Oral)

1. Vide this petition under Section 528 Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, petitioner seeks quashing of order dated 01.09.2026 of learned Additional District & Sessions Judge, Panchkula in case bearing FIR No. 242 dated 19.08.2021 under Section 22 Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985, Police Station Sector 14, Panchkula. Offence under Section 29 NDPS Act was added in the FIR during investigation. Vide impugned order, petitioner's bail was cancelled, his bail/surety bonds were forfeited to the State and non-bailable warrants were issued against him.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner was allowed regular bail in the aforementioned case and had been regularly appearing before learned trial Court each and every date. Being unwell, he moved an application for exemption from personal appearance on 01.09.2026, which learned trial Court erroneously dismissed, cancelled petitioner's bail, forfeited his bail bonds and issued non-bailable warrants to secure his presence. He further submits that petitioner could not appear on a single date of hearing due to illness and his intention was never to evade the process of law. Further, that he was willing to surrender before learned trial Court and face trial.

3. Order dated 01.09.2026 is perused.

4. Petitioner's intention to join the trial appears to be genuine and bona fide. Therefore, without commenting on merits of the impugned order, petitioner is directed to surrender before learned trial Court within 15 days and move an application for regular bail which learned trial Court shall decide expeditiously, on the same day. Till then, non-bailable warrants issued against the petitioner, shall be kept in abeyance.

5. Petition stands disposed of on the aforesaid terms.

6. Pending CRM(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
