Hon'ble Pankaj Purohit, J.

Mr. Alok Dalakoti, learned counsel for the petitioner(s) appeared through V.C.

2. Mr. Devesh Ghildiyal, learned Brief Holder for the State/contemnor.

3. On instructions, learned counsel for the respondent-contemnors submits that order of the Writ Court dated 17.12.2024 has been complied with by deciding the representation submitted by the petitioner. The representation has been rejected by the respondent-contemnor and, according to him, these contempt petitions have rendered infructuous.

He supplied the order dated 30.10.2025/06.06.2026 passed in all the writ petitions, which is taken on record, a copy of which has also been served upon the petitioner(s) in all these contempt petitions.

4. Learned counsel for the respondent/contemnor submits that in all cases, similar orders have been passed, though by different authorities, but the crux of the matter is that the order passed by the Writ Court has been complied with.

5. In such view of the matter, all contempt petitions are hereby closed. Petitioner(s) is at liberty to challenge the order passed by the respondent-contemnor, by which the representation was rejected, by filing fresh writ petition(s).
