Having heard learned counsel for the parties and upon perusal of the material available on record, this Court finds that the applicant has remained protected by virtue of the interim order dated 09.11.2023 and has duly complied with the conditions stipulated therein. The applicant has extended full cooperation during the course of investigation, and no material has been placed before this Court to indicate that he has either misused the liberty granted to him or failed to cooperate with the investigating agency.7. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly the conduct of the applicant during the period of interim protection, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that the applicant has made out a case for confirmation of the interim anticipatory bail granted vide order dated 09.11.2023.8. Consequently, the interim anticipatory bail granted to the applicant vide order dated 09.11.2023 is hereby confirmed and made absolute. The applicant shall remain on anticipatory bail on the same terms and conditions as contained in the aforesaid order.9. Accordingly, the present Anticipatory Bail Application stands allowed.(Alok Mahra, J.)18-08-2026SHIKSHA SINGOLA |
