Order

03/09/2026

1. All these writ petitions have been filed by the petitioners claiming for their encashment of Privilege Leave (PL) along with interest.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents submits that the petitioners have been paid the due benefits, as claimed by them.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that though the respondents have paid the amount towards the Privilege Leave, however, the interest on the delayed payment has not been made.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the respondents submits that the benefits of leave encashment have been accrued to the petitioners by virtue of notification dated 08.10.2024, issued by the Central Government and soon after issuance of the said notification, the petitioners have been paid the leave encashment and, therefore, they are not entitled for the interest.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the notification dated 08.10.2024 suffers illegality and, therefore, he made a limited prayer that the present writ petitions may be disposed of in the light of the statement made by the counsel for the respondent, with liberty to the petitioners to make challenge to the notification dated 08.10.2024 issued by the Central Government, before the appropriate forum.

6. In view of the prayer made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, the present writ petitions are disposed of with liberty to the petitioners, as prayed for.

7. The stay application and all pending application/s, if any, also stand/s disposed of.

8. Registry is directed to place a copy of this order in connected petitions.
