Order

25/08/2026

1. The case is admittedly pending before the Revenue Board, without availing the appropriate remedies of contesting the matter before the Revenue Board or moving appropriate application, directly writ petition has been filed, which in the opinion of this Court, would not be required to be entertained as the issue is still pending before the Revenue Board who are competent to decide the matters and also examine the factual aspects.

2. In view thereto, the writ petition is dismissed.

3. All pending application also stand disposed of.
