2. Learned counsel submits that the petitioners have falsely been implicated in the present case. Learned counsel submits that the accused Hanuman Singh has done the entire conspiracy and was also associated with the main accused Salman. Learned counsel submits that the petitioners acted as witnesses in the present case. Learned counsel further submits that no further interrogation is required from the petitioner as the investigation is complete and they are behind the bars since 08.08.2026. In view thereof, learned counsel prays that the petitioner may be enlarged on bail, as the trial will take sufficiently long time to conclude.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor strongly opposes the bail application, however, could not refute the fact that there are no serious criminal antecedents against the accused-petitioners, the police has completed the investigation and the entire conspiracy is done by accused Hanuman.

4. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the contents of the FIR.

5. This Court, after considering the nature of allegations, investigation is complete, trial will take sufficiently long time, petitioners have no direct role in the present case, and without commenting upon merits of the case, is inclined to exercise its powers under Section 483 B.N.S.S. and deems it just and proper to enlarge the accused-petitioners on bail.

6. Accordingly, the bail applications filed under Section 483 B.N.S.S. are allowed and it is directed that accused-petitioners Moinuddin S/o Safi Mohammad & Dudaram S/o Pusaram
